CLIFFORD M. DELOREY
Executive Vice President and Chief Resort Experience Officer

Clifford M. Delorey is the executive vice president and chief resort experience officer for Marriott Vacations Worldwide Corporation, and is a member of the company's executive committee.

A 30 plus year Marriott veteran, Mr. Delorey began his career in 1981. With extensive global operational experience, he has served in a variety of roles around the world including director of international operations for Marriott International in Bethesda, Md. In 2003, Mr. Delorey took on the role of regional director of operations for the Pacific Islands, Guam and Japan where he was responsible for 23 properties including four Marriott Vacation Club resorts.

In 2006, Mr. Delorey joined Marriott Vacations Worldwide where he served as vice president of operations for the East region, overseeing the region's operations team consisting of 15 resorts.

In his most recent role, Mr. Delorey served as vice president of operations for the Middle East and Africa region for Marriott International, leading 40 hotels in the region and an additional 46 that were in development within the next five years.

Mr. Delorey currently oversees the on-site management of Marriott Vacation Club and Grand Residences by Marriott resorts around the globe, provides oversight and coordination of the on-site management company for The Ritz-Carlton Destination Club resorts and is responsible for the development and financial performance of the resort-based ancillary businesses.

Mr. Delorey is a graduate of Johnson & Wales University in Providence, R.I.

###