

LIZABETH KANE-HANAN
Executive Vice President and Chief Growth and Inventory Officer

Lizabeth “Lani” Kane-Hanan is a third-generation hotelier with more than 30 years of experience in the hospitality industry. As the executive vice president and chief growth and inventory officer for Marriott Vacations Worldwide Corporation and a member of the Executive Committee, Ms. Kane-Hanan has been responsible for the company’s expansion and development activities since 2011. Specifically, she oversees the resort planning and construction, development, inventory and revenue management, rentals and product innovation department. Her team’s efforts support the Marriott Vacation Club, The Ritz-Carlton Destination Club and Grand Residences by Marriott brands around the globe.

Prior to joining the organization in 2000, Ms. Kane-Hanan was part of the senior leadership team of the real estate consulting practices of Arthur Andersen and Horwath Hospitality in Miami where she specialized in development, acquisitions and strategic planning for lodging, residential and mixed-use real estate projects and companies.

Ms. Kane-Hanan is an active member of the American Resort Development Association (ARDA), and serves on the Board of Directors. Ms. Kane-Hanan is also the co-founder and past president of Women in the Industry (WIN), a national non-profit organization - which in addition to its philanthropic activities - advocates, educates and connects women in the vacation industries. She is a member of the Urban Land Institute and serves on the Recreational Development Council. She holds memberships in several other professional associations and is a frequent guest speaker for various universities, hospitality conferences and organizations.

Ms. Kane-Hanan received her undergraduate and graduate degrees in hospitality management from Florida International University (Miami), where she also served as an adjunct instructor and is currently the Chair of the Dean’s Advisory Council.

###