

INTERVAL INTERNATIONAL AND CLC WORLD EXTEND GLOBAL MULTI-YEAR AGREEMENT

Miami, FL, February 19, 2019 – Interval International, a prominent worldwide provider of vacation services, and CLC Resort Developments Limited, one of Europe’s leading providers of mixed-use holiday products, under the Club La Costa World (CLC World) brand, announced the extension of their long-term master affiliation agreement. The contract encompasses CLC World’s vacation ownership business in top holiday destinations in Europe and the United States, and at future properties that the company develops, acquires, or operates during the term of the agreement.

“Our mission is to deliver memorable holiday experiences, with service standards that consistently exceed customer expectations,” said Roy Peires, chairman and founder of CLC World. “Interval provides the high-quality, flexible exchange and travel opportunities that meet our demanding standards, and we are very pleased to extend our relationship.”

“We look forward to continuing to work with Roy and his team, who are focused on providing owners and guests with all the amenities and services that make the CLC Experience so special,” said Jeanette Marbert, president and CEO of Interval International. “We share their commitment to creating new and exciting products that heighten the vacation experience for our members.”

CLC World resorts, with their diversity of locations, outstanding accommodations, stylish interiors, and wide range of first-class amenities and facilities, reflect the company’s innovative style. One of the newest additions to its holiday offerings is the CLC Gemini, which joins two other state-of-the-art Eleuthera 60 catamarans in the Club La Costa Yacht Club. Setting sail in the British Virgin Islands – some 40 islands and keys renowned for calm currents and ranked among the world’s top sailing spots – guests can enjoy the tucked-away air-conditioned cabins and upper-level salon that has nonstop 360-degree views. The yacht also has plasma-screen TV, a DVD player, fully stocked bar,
